

Website Design Introduction

Assignment 4:  tag Page Layout

Create 1 web page (980px width) and style it using internal CSS rules to match the following instructions and the storyboard:

1. Subject: choose a food recipe that you like. You may get the recipe from another source. Provide credits in the credit line.
2. Recipe Title: use a large font or ideally create a simple logo in Photoshop to mention the name of the recipe.
3. Left Column: include Preparation Time, a bullet list for Ingredient and a table for Nutrition fact then style with CSS.
4. Right Column: Instructions include an image (align to the left so that text wraps around it). Include heading and paragraphs and style them.
5. Spend some time on typography and color choices and do your best to style this web page as nice as you can.
6. Style every single element on the page
7. Incorporate one Google font in your CSS styles

NOTE:

- Include requires margins and padding for  boxes
- You may use any dimension for your div boxes as long as they fit in the page size required (980px width).
- Include an external link to the website you get the recipe from in the credit line.

Upload the pages to Langara server and email the link to your instructor.

Please see the storyboard in the next page >>>>

Lorem Ipsum is simply dummy text of the printing and typesetting industry. Lorem Ipsum has been the industry's standard dummy text ever since the 1500s, when an unknown printer took a galley of type and scrambled it to make a type specimen book. It has survived not only five centuries, but also the leap into electronic typesetting, remaining essentially unchanged. It was popularised in the 1960s with the release of Letraset sheets containing Lorem Ipsum passages, and more recently with desktop publishing software like Aldus PageMaker including versions of Lorem Ipsum.
